Hampton-Court, Sept. 13.

THE following humble Addreſs to His Majeſty, has been preſented to His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, by Sir James Bateman, Sub-Governour of the South-Sea Company, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State; and His Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Sub-Governour, Deputy-Governour, and Court of Directors, of the South-Sea Company.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

BEing truly ſenſible of the inſuperable Difficulties this Company has and muſt have laboured under, with reſpect to the Aſſiento-Contract, if by Your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Interpoſition with the Court of Spain, a New Convention had not been obtained in our Favour; We do (as in Duty bound) beg Leave to return our moſt unfeigned Thanks, for the Advantages this Company may receive thereby: And humbly hope that Your Majeſty will be pleaſed to continue Your great Goodneſs to us, which to the utmoſt of our Power we will Endeavour to deſerve, by imbracing all Occaſions to demonſtrate our Loyalty to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and by a faithful Diſcharge of the Truſt repoſed in us.

Nor can we doubt of the Proſperity of this Company ſo long as we have ſo powerful a Protector as Your Majeſty, and the Honour of His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales for our Governour.

That Your Majeſty's Reign may be long and peaceable, and that One of Your Royal Progeny may always Inherit the Crowns of theſe Realms, are the moſt ſincere Prayers of us, Your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects.

By Order of the Court of Directors.

Ja. Bateman, Sub-Governour.

Venice, Aug. 29. Letters from Dalmatia which arrived laſt Week adviſe, That the Captain of the Gulph was ſailed from that Coaſt with the Galliots, Brigantines, and other Veſſels, having on Board 3000 German Soldiers deſigned to reinforce the Garriſon of Corfu. On the 26th came Letters by the way of Otranto, from the Captain-General of the Fleet and other Officers, dated the 11th of this Month, which relate that the Turks before Corfu had carried on Two ſmall Trenches, with Deſign to encompaſs the Out-Fortifications of the Place, which they attacked thrice, and were repulſed with great Loſs. One of their Attacks was on the ſide of St. Salvadore, where they had raiſed three Batteries, one of ſeven Guns, another of three, and one of three Mortars, with which they fired on the New Fortreſs. They were informed of the Defeat of their Army in Hungary, and 'twas obſerved that ſince they had that News they carried on their Works with leſs Vigour.

Madrid, Sept. 7. The Perſons intereſted in the Effects brought by the Flota from New Spain, are extremely ſatisfied with the moderate Indulto of 7 per Cent. which the King has demanded: But 'tis ſaid the Court, has approved a Project that has been formed, which is, that all the Silver brought by this Flota ſhall be carried to the Mint at Seville to be new coyned; the Reaſon given for this, is, that it will be a means to prevent, or at leaſt to retard and make difficult, the Exportation of the Coyn out of the Kingdom: This Recoynage will bring at leaſt 4 per Cent. Profit to the King, and will be ſo much Loſs to the Owners of the Silver. The Marquis del Vadillo, Superintendant of the general Revenues of the Crown, having in a private Audience convinced his Majeſty, that the letting thoſe Revenues to Farm would be more profitable than the preſent Methods of collecting and managing them, an Order has been ſent to the Council of the Hazienda to let them to farm accordingly. The Duke of Berwick's Son, called Lord Tinmouth, came hither lately with Deſign to ſettle in this Kingdom; and is allowed to take Poſſeſſion of the Dutchy of Liria in Valencia, which with the Title has been made over to him by his Father: A Treaty of Marriage has been ſet on foot between him and the Duke de Veraguas's Siſter, who is called Donna Catalina de Portugal; but the ſaid Duke is ſaid to demand ſuch extravagant travagant Terms on the Part of his Siſter, that the Match is like to break off. The Portugueſe Squadron which is gone to the Aſſiſtance of the Venetians, in paſſing by the Coaſt of Granada met two ſmall Mooriſh Veſſels; one of them having on Board 32 Men, was taken; the other carrying 28 Men ran into the Port of Almeria, where ſhe was ſeized by the Spaniards. The Portugueſe demand Reſtitution of this Veſſel and her Crew, alledging that ſhe is by Right their Prize, as having been forced by the Cannon of their Ships to run for Shelter into the ſaid Port. An Equivalent has been propoſed to the King of Portugal for the Colony of St. Sacrament in America, purſuant to Treaty; but it being refuſed, his Catholick Majeſty has ordered the Council to make ſome other Propoſal that may be more acceptable.

The Commiſſioners appointed by a late Act of Parliament to enquire of the Eſtates of certain Traitors, &c. do think fit to give Notice, That ſome of them are now executing the ſaid Act at Preſton in Lancaſhire, and others at Edinburgh in Scotland; to whom all Perſons who have any Diſcoveries to make, may reſpectively apply themſelves, and be aſſured of the Encouragements given by the ſaid Act for the ſame.

The Commiſſioners for Managing His Majeſty's Stamp Duties do hereby advertiſe, That Affidavits taken before Gentlemen who are Juſtices of the Peace touching any Matters not within the Commiſſion of the Peace, are not by the Stamp Acts exempted from the Stamp Duties, nor are Affidavits of Receiving the Sacraments taken in any of the Courts of Weſtminſter, or of Quarter-Seſſions, or in any other Court: This is here inſerted to the end His Majeſty's Duties payable in that behalf may be duely anſwer'd, and the incurring the Penalties avoided. And the ſaid Commiſſioners do further advertiſe any Serjeant at Mace, or other Officer who arreſts any Perſon by colour of any Plaint or Action (in any Court holding Plea for 40 s. or above, and out of which no Writs or Mandates in Writing for ſuch Arreſt do iſſue) before ſuch Plaint or Action be duely entred and ſtampt, incurs for every ſuch Arreſt the Penalty of 20 l. the Moiety with full Coſts to any Perſon who informs and ſues for the ſame, as the Statute in that Caſe made directs.
